VOLUME XXVII

CONEMAUGH TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL
DAVIDSVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1965, dedicate this twenty-seventh edition of the Connumach to the community.

More important than our heredity is our environment, for we are the products of it. The things we see, the places we go, and the people we meet make us the people we are.

Our homes, our churches, our schools, along with the geographical location of these, help us to distinguish good from evil, the beautiful from the ugly, and the important from the trivial.

Our earliest influence came from our home and family. We shall always remember our grade school days—our schools, our teachers. High school gave us fond remembrances of faculty members; of facts they taught us. Our churches also have continued to mold our character. We look to these with pride.

The natural beauty of our surroundings—the forests, the hills, and the streams—make us proud of our community in Pennsylvania.

For the privilege of being part of such an environment, it is with a deep sense of appreciation that we dedicate this book to our community.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

DR. TELFORD B. BLOUGH

MR. DONALD W. DRENNER

University of Pittsburgh, B.S., M.Ed.; Graduate work at Susquehanna University, Howard University, Juniata College, Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Study, University of California; High School Principal.

To the Seniors:

With this year at C.T.H.S. you are climaxing one of the important phases of your life. At the same time, as your principal, I am initiating a new phase in my life. May we in later years reflect with great satisfaction.

As graduating members of the Class of 1965 you are entering a world that will offer opportunities unlimited. The degree to which you grasp at these opportunities will be tempered by the intensity of your desires.

And may the methods you use in grasping at opportunity be based on the good moral and ethical foundation that you were taught at C.T.H.S.

With these factors in mind I wish you the blessings of the Almighty as you move through life.

Donald W. Drenner
High School Principal

DR. TELFORD B. BLOUGH

Juniata College, A.B.; Teachers College, Columbia University, M.A.; University of Pittsburgh, Ed.D.; Graduate work at University of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania State University, Ohio State University, Columbia School of Journalism, American Peoples College in Europe; Supervising Principal

Class of 1965:

You have completed the first step toward a successful life. You are a high school graduate. In 1965, or any other year, a high school diploma will not pave your way to a life of ease and wealth. But a high school diploma is the key now necessary to open almost any door which will give you an opportunity to prove yourself.

Conemaugh Township schools are growing, not only in numbers but in the determination of school officials, teachers and the entire student body to build a better educational program for the young men and women of this community. Believe me, this area has a future. Pessimism is finally giving way to renewed faith and hope. We invite you to participate in this new effort.

We are glad you are a C.T.H.S. graduate. Face the future with confidence and determination. We wish you well always.

SPECIAL SERVICES

GUIDANCE—Mrs. Wonder counsels Kerry Trachok.

Guidance is valuable for all students. Since no one can remain in school all his life, we need some idea in what areas we excel in order to plan for our future vocations. It is the job of this department to aid us in our decisions. The services of two counselors usually are available; this year, one of them, Mr. Landis P. Beckley, is on leave of absence.

The Home-School Visitor keeps the attendance records of the High School and serves as a link between the school and the pupils' homes.

The School Nurse gives all health examinations and cares for anyone who becomes ill while in school.

SCHOOL NURSE—Miss Nancy Haas, R.N., gives Ann Cates minor first-aid.

HOME-SCHOOL VISITOR—Dr. Kenneth R. Thomas, University of Pittsburgh, B.S., M.Ed., and D.Ed.

SECRETARIES

Miss Lois Williamson and Mrs. Mary Jane Kantz.

Miss Lucy Cortese — Executive Secretary.

Over the years the Junior High Student Council has served as the first step of student participation in school government. During most of this time Mr. Eash has served as advisor, but Mrs. Blough and Mr. Vizzini have also served the organization.

The special activities of the Junior High Student Council include running the popcorn concession, class parties, assemblies, skating parties, Student Council elections and Teacher Appreciation Day activities.

These students represent the Junior High School. They attempt to establish better relationships between student and faculty, to promote better school citizenship and to organize student social activities.

NO MORE HOMEWORK

"No More Homework," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the Junior Class on April 17, 1964, under the direction of Mrs. May and John Czerwinski. The play dealt with the complications that arose when high school students took over the school administration for a day. More trouble arose when a robbery occurred at the school.

The cast included: Miss Goodin - Pat McKowan, Mrs. Clendenning - Mary Scott, Miss Ogilvie - Toni Reed, Mr. Harper - Bill Wright, Mr. Lundquist - Earl Custer, Coach Guthrie - Richard Lohr, Pamela Jones - Judy Eash, Buzz Bailey - Herb Lohr, Shalimar Ames - Judy Lubas, Midge Murphey - Helene Grabusnik, Flaversham Lightly - John Frank, Tallulah Ploetz - Rhea Schnegg, Ronald Sassoon - Seth Williams, Miss Dill - Linda Hunt, Tick Tok - Richard Saylor, Mrs. Ratchet - Judy Gaeta, Elmer B. Ames - John Hill.

Prompters were Sharon Cable and Bonnie Cruickshank.

Mrs. Ratchet crowns Tok.

The entire cast had fun presenting this play to the student body and to the audience at the evening performance.

Coach Guthrie has been hit in the jaw by Mr. Harper for some remarks the coach has just made.

Don't Buzz Bailey and Ronald Sassoon make a lovely couple?

Mrs. May, our director.

ROOM AND BORED

On December 5, 1964, the Senior Class presented the three-act comedy "Room and Bored." In this play, Claudia Collins brings a beatnik and his friends home from college with her. These beatniks disrupt the normally quiet atmosphere of the Collins' summer cottage.

The cast included: Raymond Collins - Bill Wright, Sylvia Collins - Nancy Thomas, Jean Collins - Helene Grabusnik, Tony Foster - Ronald Kaufman, Claudia Collins - Judy Lubas, Dorothy Foster - Sherrie Koontz, Mrs. Aiken - Toni Reed, Clyde Aiken - Earl Custer, Craven Bentley - Herbert Lohr, Silas Macnabb - Richard Lohr, Mrs. Audubon - Pat McKowan, Nell Bowden - Judy Eash, Mrs. Cavendish - Mary Scott, Zeena Deever - Judy Gaeta, Mr. O'Reilly - Bob Rose. The little O'Reillys were played by Lanny Vrooman, Robert Shank, Wally Shank, Brian Knight, Clifford Kaufman and Jess McFeaters. Rhea Schnegg, Linda Hunt, and Seth Williams were assistant directors.

The cast of "Room and Bored" gathers together for a picture at one of the dress rehearsals.

Craven's poetry was as "far out" as he was. Here he is captured in the middle of a recital.

Dorothy takes her revenge on poor Clyde Aiken as Jean Collins looks on.
